Gallery 924 Presents TINY VII: A Really Big Show December 6 – January 4

INDIANAPOLIS— Gallery 924 will present hundreds of tiny artworks as a part of its annual TINY exhibition. TINY VII: A Really Big Show kicks off the holiday gift giving season with original art that is 6” x 6” x 6” or smaller. Gallery 924 expects to display 400 artworks by 100 Indianapolis-based artists. Works range in price from $10 - $500 and include painting, photography, ceramics, printmaking, sculpture, collage, works on paper, and more.

“TINY is always one of our favorite shows because it allows us to find interesting new artists and share their work in a very fun and accessible way. This is an art show where everyone can find something they absolutely love and can easily acquire. Many fantastic art collections have begun with a spark from TINY,” said Shannon Linker, Interim President and Director of Gallery 924.

TINY VII is the perfect opportunity for first-time art buyers to start a collection or for seasoned gallery goers to purchase holiday gifts and discover new artists. The show includes artists from past Gallery 924 solo exhibitions, a number of well-known Indianapolis artists as well as new emerging artists.

TINY VII opens for Collectors’ Night on Thursday, December 6, from 5 - 8 pm, and for First Friday on Friday, December 7, from 6 - 10 pm.

This year First Friday goers will have the chance to ride a complementary trolley to shuttle around to nearby participating galleries. Gallery 924 is one of five galleries along the shuttle’s route. Patrons will be able to ride the shuttle to Stutz Business & Arts Center, Harrison Center, Indiana Landmarks Center, and Circle City Industrial Complex (CCIC). Parking for those interested in utilizing the trolley will be available in the lot west of the Stutz building along Senate Avenue, Indiana Landmarks’ parking lot, and the CCIC parking lot on Brookside.

“With the other arts events happening on December First Friday at the Stutz building, the Harrison Center and other downtown spots, there is no better time in Indy to get started on your holiday shopping. What better way to share a bit of Indy and support your creative community than to give the gift of original artwork?" Linker said.
